TMS INTERNATIONAL RECEIVES 46 NSA SAFETY AWARDS

PITTSBURGH, October 4, 2022 – TMS International and its subsidiary, Stein, recently received a total of 46 Safety Awards from the National Slag Association (NSA) at its sites in the United States and Canada, the most awards of any steel mill services company.

The NSA Safety Awards recognize superior performance as measured against Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) recordable injury rates. The awards were presented to the Company during the NSA’s annual meeting in South Carolina.

“We are honored to receive these prestigious awards,” said Raymond Kalouche, TMS President and CEO. “The Company has no greater priority than the safety and security of its employees, customers, facilities and the communities in which we operate. These awards are well deserved and recognition of the safety-first culture throughout our Company. I am extremely proud of all our colleagues and congratulate them for being recognized for their dedication and commitment to safety.”

TMS received safety awards for 46 sites that had “Zero Recordable Employee Injuries,” of which seven were historical Stein sites.

Operations receiving safety awards for “Zero Recordable Injuries” for employees were:
